Ph.D. Degree/M.A. to Ph.D. Track/TRANSNATIONAL MAJORS CHECKLIST [Effective 2011]
UNOFFICIAL STUDENT WORKSHEET

18 HOURS REQUIRED IN TRANSNATIONAL MAJOR (One three hour of research seminar is required. Ordinarily the research seminar requirement will be met by taking a designated research course selected from the European, Latin American, or U.S. offerings or by taking special problems courses structured as research seminars. Typically this seminar should come from the geographic region most pertinent to the dissertation topic. All Transnational history students must take two historiography seminars: either chosen among the European, Latin American, and U.S. historiography seminars or a historiography seminar in a nonwestern area. The particular courses chosen must fit with the student's research plan and must be chosen in consultation with the student's advisor.)
