

JOIN US FOR A PUBLIC TALK, SPONSORED BY

UNIVERSITY of HOUSTON

African American Studies, the UH Center for Public History, and the Department of Modern & Classical Languages

SUGAR LAND HISTORY AND THE LOST 95 AFRICAN AMERICANS

WHEN

March 5, 2019, 2:30 - 4:30pm
Reception to follow

WHERE

Rockwell Pavilion,
M.D. Anderson Library
4333 University Dr., Houston, TX 77204

WHAT

Brooke Lewis and Naomi Mitchell Carrier will address the recent discovery of the 95 African American graves in Sugar Land—a reminder of its old prison labor system—and the controversies over how to remember this history.

For more information, contact Dr. Theresa Hernandez:

mherna18@Central.UH.EDU

SPEAKERS

Houston Chronicle Reporter, Brooke Lewis

Professor Naomi Mitchell Carrier,
Houston Community College