

Share your memories of the 1977 Women's Conference

By submitting your story, you agree that it can be published online and used by conference organizers and preserved by the University of Houston Libraries Special Collections.

If you would like more information about this project, or have any questions or trouble submitting your story, please contact: Leandra Zarnow (luzarnow@central.uh.edu) or Lisa Cruces (ecruces@uh.edu or 713-743-9903).

Stories to tell:

Where were you in 1977, and what were you up to? If you were at the National Women's Conference, what was your role? What did you think about this gathering? How does it stand out in your memory? If you were not in attendance, how did you hear about the conference? What do you think made this moment matter?

Ways to share:

Write your story in an email or attach as a PDF or Word document. Or feel free to take a picture of a handwritten memory or favorite souvenir. Send to: sharingstories77@gmail.com.

Create audio recordings to share. Use the audio recording function on your iPhone or Android to make a short voice memo in which you share your thoughts about the National Women's Conference.
