

SOCIOLOGY IN ACTION LECTURE

EVENT DETAILS:

Thursday, March 20

3:00 P.M. – 4:30 P.M.

Elizabeth D. Rockwell Pavilion

Register Online: bit.ly/sia25-lecture

UNLOCKING POTENTIAL: THE POWER OF PRISON EDUCATION WITH DR. MARY NELL TRAUTNER

Join us for a special lecture, "Unlocking Potential: The Power of Prison Education." In this talk, Dr. Mary Nell Trautner examines how college-in-prison programs create transformative change both within and beyond prison walls, revealing their power to reshape universities, communities and society at large. This is the 2025 Sociology in Action Lecture series.

